

--That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

--How Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved your time at home. I no longer waste time answering the phone on non-essential phone calls or hate answering the phone as it may be a telemarketer.

--How effective Indiana's law has been I used to receive calls everyday, disrupting my personal life, and tying up my phone line. Answering the phone became a "chore" instead of a pleasure.

--Any of your personal views about the importance of Indiana's law.
I would hate to see any Federal Law that would cause a change to an effective law that we all ready have established. At least if you are going to make it a federal law , make it as good as the one we have.
